

The Borthwick Institute in association with the National Archives & Explore Your Archive

Arnold Rowntree and the Business of Conscientious Objection

Sat 23rd Nov, 1pm-4pm @Borthwick

With Dr Bridget Morris, Director of the Rowntree Society

A free event to introduce you to archival research and the sources available to research WW1 conscientious objection in York

- Learn how Rowntree balanced local politics, his business interests and the dictates of a Quaker conscience
- Discover how to use archives and published sources to learn more about York's conscientious objectors
- Explore original archival documents and find out about York in WW1

Spaces are limited so please contact us to book this event

Tel: (01904) 321166

Email: borthwick-institute@york.ac.uk